THE PRESIDENT'S MACE

In the Middle Ages the mace was carried by a knight into battle, but, originally, it was a dignitary's staff and the ensign of his authority. The mace of a University has this original significance, namely, the symbol of authority, and it is carried before the President in academic processions.

The mace of the University of Dayton, employed for the first time in these Spring commencement exercises of 1966, was designed and executed by Assistant Professor Louis A. Weber, S.M., of the Department of Fine Arts.

The University's coat of arms, sand-blasted on a piece of stained glass, is framed in strap iron covered with puddled brass. The tubing is aluminum and the color is anodized.

The red and blue ribbons, the University's colors, give a tone of festivity to the commencement exercises.

THE PRESIDENT'S MEDALLION

The President's Medallion, designed and executed by Brother Louis A. Weber, S.M., Assistant Professor of Art of the University of Dayton, East Campus, is being worn by the Very Reverend President for the first time in these commencement exercises of Spring, 1966.

The President will wear the Medallion at all future formal academic exercises.

The Medallion is of enameled copper, two processes having been employed in its composition: an etching process known as "champleve" and a silver-wire separation process called "cloisonne." Any exposed copper has been gold-plated.

There is an inscription on the Medallion taken from Deuteronomy 33, 8, and is descriptive of the qualities of the University's highest officer: "The touchstones of Wisdom and Truth are for the man thou hast set apart."

The black symbols decorating the text and suggestive of Hebrew script represent the Wisdom of the Old Testament. The Cross represents the Truth of the New Testament. It is the role of the University to combine both Testaments into a unified whole, symbolized by the circular design. The splendor of such a concept is portrayed by the serrated edge.

On the reverse side of the Medallion is a representation of the Madonna and Child, the Word of God become flesh. Eternal Wisdom became incarnate, a lofty ideal of the University's function to incarnate Knowledge in man.

The University of Dayton Anthem

*On mountain high and hillside, o'er meadow and through dell,
In busy mart and hamlet, where hearts their story tell,
A clarion voice is ringing, it rises, now it falls,
Arouse, ye sons of Dayton, your Alma Mater calls.*

*U. D., we hear you calling, Fidelity's the test,
Your stalwart sons all answer from North, South,
East and West.
With measured tread advancing, our emblem full in view,
We sound your praise and pledge our loyalty to the
